Description - At the start from Péronne the first 5km is along the old railway line which can be very wet and boggy. The route then mainly follows roads to Trefcon.

Walk description

1 - With the Musée de la Grande Guerre behind you pass through the car park ahead and turn left along Rue Du Gladimont. Head towards the clock tower passing it on your left and then turn right at the traffic lights Rue Beranger. Continue straight down the road past the supermarket on your right.

Cartigny.

4 - Reach the village of Vraignes-en-Vermandois, turn right and pass through it to eventually reach a roundabout. Go straight across and head along the D15 direction Tertry and then next left D44 direction Tertry. Pass through that village and at the top of the hill take the left turn signposted Trefcon to reach the Allee de l'Eglise on your right.
